Company recognized for social responsibility, innovation and quality of management

PHOENIX, Jan. 26, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- For the fifth time, Republic Services, Inc. (NYSE: RSG), has been named one of the World's Most Admired Companies by Fortune. The company ranked high for social responsibility, innovation and quality of management, as well as financial soundness and long-term investment value, reflecting Republic Services' consistent performance and growth.

Sustainability in Action

"This recognition reflects the commitment of our 42,000 employees to delivering results the right way," said Jon Vander Ark, president and chief executive officer. "Every day, our team puts our values into action by delivering world-class essential services to our customers, helping to create a more sustainable world."

The 2026 World's Most Admired Companies list is based on a comprehensive survey of corporate reputation. Results were determined by evaluating roughly 1,500 candidates across nine criteria that assess corporate reputation, including investment value, management and product quality, social responsibility and the ability to attract talent. The rankings reflect insights from industry executives, directors and analysts, collected by Fortune's research partner, Korn Ferry.
